OVER $1,500 FIRE LOSS. Joseph Wentworth Experiences Severe Blow-Nearly Loses His Life.

Joseph Wentworth nearly lost his ife in a fire that destroyed his house, parn and shed on his farm in the north barn and shed on his farm in the north part of the town of Brooklyn close to the Pomfret town line late Thursday night. The blazing structures attracted the attention of farmers living in the sparsely populated section and when they arrived at the scene Wentworth, who had lived alone since the death of his wife a few days ago, was sleeping peacefully in his blazing home.

sleeping peacefully in his blazing home.

First efforts to awaken him failing, the neighbors turned their attention for a minute to releasing the three cows and one horse in the barn, which was burning fiercely, but the inmates were gotten out in safety. Wentworth was finally aroused by smashing in the window of his bedroom. At that time the ell of the house had burned off, and the flames were eating their way into the room where the sleeping man lay. In five minutes he would have been beyond help. As it was, he had to crawl out the bedroom window. A dog and two cats that were in the kitchen lost their lives. No water to fight the fire could be had as the well was in the house. The buildings were burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is believed to have started in the shed. A close estimate of the loss is not obtainable at this time, but it is believed to be from $1.500 to $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

H. Ricketts—Illustrated Lecture.

The Congregational Christian Endeavor society observed its 22d anniversary Friday evening by inviting the church attendants to spend the evening in the vestry. The music committee had arranged a musical programme, including a solo, "Mizpah," sung by Miss Elizabeth Beardwood, accompanied by Mrs. F. E. Robinson; a duet, Rock of Ages, sung by Miss Mabel A. Young and H. E. Jackman, and a quartette, Jesus, the Very Thought is Sweet, by Mrs. F. S. Leonard, Mrs. E. H. Hiscox, E. F. Burleson, and R. I. Frost, with F. S. Leonard as accompanist. Rev. C. H. Ricketts of Greeneville delivered a stirring address.

Mr. Ricketts' subject was Adaptability. The first duty of man is to make the most of himself in his environment, There are two great forces in this world, the workshop and the adaptability to work in the field. Every person has a place in this worshop and the failure to perform the duty will be punished. He thought that Christian Endeavor was not fully alive to changed conditions and gave his ideas of what Christian Endeavor ought to mean, placing special emphasis on social ideals. Mrs. G. W. Robinson, the president of the society, conducted the exercises and the devotional part was in charge of Rev. W. H. Gane.

Report That Mystic Island is to Reopen-Tug Launched-Death of Mrs.

It was reported here Friday that Mystic Island is to be reopened. The reopening of the resort would bring pleasure to the business men in the village.

pleasure to the business men in the village.

The hotel and surrounding buildings are sadly in need of repairs and much time would be required to put them into shape to accommodate early arriving guests.

The prospects of Noank as a summer resort are very bright. Mason Island as a camping colony grows more popular every season, and each year brings new campers. The number of cottages is increasing; with two new cottages is increasing; with two new cottages to be built this spring the total number will be over forty. Groton Long Point is also making good progress in building up. One of the latest improvements at this summer colony is the construction of a wide gravel street from the trolley line to the long white South Beach. Manager William Wheeler of the Long Point farm will soon begin renovation of the large house on the property to accommodate guests this summer.
